Praise of Nature's Beauty: The Tribute 1 Green

Forest-inspired tones bring a fresh aesthetic to the most elegant Armin Strom collection.

Armin Strom celebrates the richness of the timeless presence of nature with the Tribute 1 Green, a refined dress watch that evokes the deep greens of forests and fields. The off-centre main dial, in forest green with a hand-engraved *grain d'orge guilloché pattern and printed white Roman numerals, is complemented by a frosted subdial that creates a richly textured evergreen backdrop. A matching Alcantara leather strap completes the composition with understated elegance.

In balance with this display, the openworked motor barrel is secured by a finger bridge in stainless steel - echoing the case and embodying Armin Strom's fusion of mechanical craftsmanship and refined symmetry. Measuring 38 mm in diameter with a crown at 2 o'clock, the stainless steel case is paired with anti-reflective sapphire crystals front and back for optimal visual clarity.

Compact Power, Pure Performance.

The Tribute 1 Green is powered by the manual-winding Manufacture Caliber AMW21, offering an impressive 100-hour power reserve. This is achieved through the innovative architecture of the patented equal force barrel, positioned strategically to optimize space and efficiency. With a frequency of 25,200 vph, the movement reflects the brand's deep technical expertise - and with 97% of components produced in-house, it remains a true expression of independence.

A Modern Classic, Finished by Hand.

Refined in design yet rooted in tradition, the Tribute 1 Green is grounded in the values of traditional haute horlogerie. Every detail is carefully considered: the case features contrasting brushed and polished surfaces, finished entirely by hand. The signature finger bridge is bevelled and mirror-polished to reflect light from every angle. Inside, the movement is adorned with traditional decorative techniques - from Geneva stripes to circular graining - applied with care by skilled artisans in-house.

True to Armin Strom's commitment to excellence, each Tribute 1 Green is assembled twice - ensuring every piece meets the highest standards of both performance and aesthetics.
